

Library Jeopardy

Famous First Lines

100 – I am Sam. Green Eggs and Ham

200 – Mr. and Mrs. Dursley, of number four Privet Drive, were proud to say that they were perfectly normal, thank you very much. Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone

300 – “Where’s Papa going with that ax?” Charlotte’s Web

400 – It was almost December, and Jonas was beginning to be frightened. The Giver

500 – It was a dark and stormy night. A Wrinkle in Time

You Are Here

100 – C. S. Lewis wrote books about this imaginary place. Narnia

200 – Bella moves from Phoenix to this town in Twilight by Stephenie Meyer. Forks, Washington

300 – In Ella Enchanted by Gail Carson Levine, Ella lives in what fictional country. Frell

400 – Eugenides is the Thief of Eddis but he marries the Queen of what country. Attolia

500 – In the Percy Jackson and the Olympians books, current day Mount Olympus is located at what famous tourist attraction. Empire State Building

Folklore and Fairy Tales

100 – These scholarly brothers traveled the German countryside collecting folktales and fairy tales.

Jacob and Wilhelm Grimm

200 – Numerous versions of this rags-to-riches tale appear in several cultures, including one where the stepsisters cut off pieces of their feet. Cinderella

300 – This Danish author of The Ugly Duckling wrote many tales that are often mistaken for fairy tales but are actually original authored stories. Hans Christian Andersen

400 – Baba Yaga, the Bony Witch, is a wicked creature in the folklore of this country. Russia

500 – Asbjørnsen and Moe first released their fairy tale pamphlets in what country. Norway

Based on the Book

100 – Frodo and his companions journey through Middle Earth in the film adaptation of this author’s famous works. J. R. R. Tolkien

200 – This Newbery award winning book by Kate DiCamillo was turned into an animated movie. The Tale of Despereaux

300 – This television show, based on the books by Cecily Von Ziegesar, is in its 4th season on the CW network. Gossip Girl

400 – Nicole Kidman played Ms. Coulter in the 2007 adaptation of this book. The Golden Compass

500 – Michael Cera and Kat Dennings starred in this adaptation of Rachel Cohn and David Levithan’s novel of the same name. Nick & Norah’s Infinite Playlist

Authors from Around the World

100 – The Swedish author Astrid Lindgren is best known for creating this red-haired character. Pippi Longstocking

200 – The author of the Harry Potter books lives in this country. Scotland

300 – This German author has sold over 10 million copies of her books worldwide, including Inkheart. Cornelia Funke (foon-ka)

400 – Koushun Takami, author of the popular book Battle Royale, is from what country. Japan

500 – This Australian author has written the Keys to the Kingdom series and the Abhorsen series. Garth Nix

Final Jeopardy

Theodor Geisel wrote children’s books under this pseudonym. Dr. Seuss