Report of the State Librarian

Dan Siebersma reported on a number of items:

- Strategic Plan Update/Budget Outlook
  - Taking a page from the Meteorologist’s Handbook, Siebersma issued a “severe budgetstorm watch” for the State Library. This means conditions exist which could lead to budget problems for SDSL, and we need to be alert to them. Although overall state finances have improved, some departments find themselves strapped for personnel and funds, and SDSL could find itself targeted for cuts to fund these other efforts.
  - Siebersma reminded the Board that SDSL has been very successful in implementing an ambitious new Strategic Plan, while at the same time cheerfully absorbing cuts of over 30% in state funding and almost 22% in FTEs. We are currently operating at our FY2000 funding level [handout].
  - The State Library is not seeking additional funding, but we also cannot absorb more significant cuts in staff or funding without cutting programs that serve others [handout].
  - Siebersma reiterated that a “budgetstorm watch” means there is no crisis right now, but conditions warrant being alert.

- State Open Meetings Law Revisions
  - Siebersma ran through a number of reminders of new and existing requirements for open meetings, including:
    - Agenda must be posted and visible to the public 24 hours prior to the meeting
    - Notice must be posted on the website
    - Notification must be sent to any local media, if requested
    - If less than a quorum is present at one location, the public must be able to listen via phone or web
    - New items should not be added to agenda once posted
    - Draft minutes must be posted within 5 days of the meeting
Other Staff Reports

Colleen Kirby reported on recent developments concerning our recording studios for our Talking Books program.

- Currently we have recording studios at Yankton Federal Prison Camp and the State Library.
- In the process of ordering equipment for a recording studio in Sioux Falls, housed at Siouxland Library.

On behalf of Daria Bossman, Siebersma reported that the 21st Century School Library Program has been endorsed by the State Board of Education, and will be up and running for the new school year.

He also reported that our first-ever School Library Boot Camp is underway at BHSU, with 38 very enthusiastic and dedicated students enrolled.
