

---

WINTER READING CHALLENGE: 2023

NAME: _____

Answer these questions in a brief sentence or two and return by March 31, 2023.

Book 1: Neither Wolf nor Dog by Kent Nerburn

Explain the significance of the following quote:

“Yes, Silence is the lie of the good man, or the coward. It is seeing something you don’t like and not speaking.”

---

---

Book 2: Granny D: Walking Across America in my 90th Year by Doris Haddock

What do you feel passionately enough about to walk across the country and raise awareness for? _____

---

---

Use this QR code and a smart phone to submit your challenge answers online.

Book 3: Duct Tape Killer by Phil Hamman and Sandy Hamman

Do you remember this happening? How did it impact you?

---

---

Book 4: Tisha by Robert Specht

What kind of prejudice does Anne find in Chicken? How does she deal with it? _____

---

---

Book 5: They Went Left by Monica Hesse

What does family come to mean to Zofia and the other survivors she encounters? _____

---

---

Book 6: Winterdance by Gary Paulsen

Given the inhuman conditions and hardships, what is behind Paulsen's obsessive drive to complete the Iditarod? In light of his inexperience, do you find his ambition admirable, selfish, mad ... or what? _____

---