

Braille and Talking Book Program Descriptive Video Service (DVS)

The Braille and Talking Book Program is pleased to offer the DVS collection to our patrons. The Described Video Collection provides borrowers with access to described videos that can be played with your own DVD player and television. No other special equipment is required.

Descriptive DVDs contain a soundtrack with narration of the key visual elements of the film to make them accessible to viewers with visual disabilities. These key visual elements include any part of a presentation that blind or visually impaired viewers would ordinarily miss, such as the characters' actions, costumes, gestures, and facial expressions, as well as scene changes and onscreen text. Understanding these visual elements is often essential to fully understanding the program or film.

How do I sign up to borrow videos?

You must complete a separate "Descriptive Video Registration Form" before you can use our descriptive video service. Either complete the online Descriptive Video Registration Form or contact Braille & Talking Book Program at 1-800-423-6665, option 1 and request that a print Descriptive Video Registration Form be mailed. You must be a current BTBP patron in good standing to be able to sign up for videos.

How do I order videos?

Once you have signed up, videos may be requested in person, by telephone, by mail, or by email. There is no limit to the number of requests patrons may place on file for future loan. The first available descriptive video on a borrower's request list will be sent automatically each time a title is returned.

Please note that anyone under the age of 18 may not borrow R-rated videos.

How do I select the descriptive track on DVDs?

The DVS track on non-accessible DVDs is usually found under Languages or Set-up Menus. Assistance from a sighted friend or family member may be helpful. Some patrons have found that for some DVDs, once the film has begun playing, pressing the "Audio" button repeatedly on their DVD player's remote control will help select the DVS track.

How do I find a list of the videos?

Ask your Reader Advisor to send you the Descriptive Video Service Catalog. You can also search find the catalog on the Braille and Talking Book Program website, <http://library.sd.gov/BTB/index.aspx>. Click on "Catalogs or Collections" and then click on "Descriptive Video."

How long can I keep the videos?

The loan period is 14 days. There will be no renewals. Patrons may borrow two descriptive video titles at a time. Additional DVS titles may not be checked out until one title currently checked out is received and checked back in by staff

How do I return the videos?

Descriptive video titles should be mailed back to the Braille and Talking Book Program after viewing by turning over the mailing card so the Library's address is facing up. Videos should be delivered into the hands of the Postal Service, do not leave videos on your doorstep.

What equipment do I need to play the videos?

You need a television and DVD player, or a computer with a DVD player, to watch descriptive videos. No other special equipment is required. Braille and Talking Book Program does not loan televisions or DVD players; just the videos.

What do I do if a video is damaged or lost?

If a DVD becomes damaged, return it to us promptly and contact Braille & Talking Book Program to let us know what happened. Borrowers are responsible for the replacement cost of a DVD that is damaged beyond repair, or that is lost in the mail. Borrowers who damage or lose a DVD will have their privileges to the Descriptive Video Service revoked until the replacement cost is paid in full.

How do I avoid damage to DVDs?

The DVDs are exactly like CDs, they are small, round, fragile, thin plastic discs. Each disc fits tightly in its mailing container; either use your fingers on the edges of the DVD to gently dislodge it, or gently push with your thumb on the small circular center of the disc to pop it out of its container.

1. Permanent damage occurs when the surface of a DVD is scratched
2. Handle DVDs by the edges
3. Avoid dropping them
4. Magnetic or electromagnetic fields may damage videos: avoid placing videos on TV sets, speakers, or near electric motors
5. Avoid dust, dirt, food, liquids and condensation

What is the Address and phone number of the Braille and Talking Program?

Address: Braille and Talking Book Program
800 Governors Drive
Pierre, South Dakota 57501-2294

Telephone: 605-773-3131 or 1-800-423-6665
then option 1 for Braille & Talking Book Program

What is the official DVS Loan Policy?

1. Borrowers must be registered and active patrons in good standing with the Braille and Talking Book Library. All borrowers must complete a Descriptive Video Registration Form.
2. Patrons may borrow two descriptive video titles at a time. Patrons may not check out another descriptive video title until the currently checked out title is returned to the library.
3. The loan period is 14 days. There will be no renewals.

4. Videos may be requested in the same way you request books: in person, by telephone, by email or by mail. There is no limit to the number of requests patrons may place on file for future loan. The first available descriptive video on a borrower's request list will be sent automatically each time a title is returned.
5. Videos loaned to individuals are for personal use only, and are not intended for group viewing. Videos may be loaned to organizations or groups, including nursing homes, libraries, schools or teachers solely for viewing by individuals eligible for BTBP services. Patrons or institutions may not charge fees for anyone attending a showing of any descriptive videos loaned by the Braille and Talking Book Program.
6. Due to high demand, descriptive video titles may not be reserved for special dates.
7. DVDs should be returned as is; there is nothing to rewind.
8. Descriptive video titles should be mailed back to the Braille and Talking Book Program after viewing by turning over the mailing card so the Library's address is facing up. DVDs may be mailed free of charge. "Free Matter for the Blind" is imprinted on each container's mailing card.
9. Abuse of the video lending service, including but not limited to repeated overdues, lost materials, or damaged discs will result in suspension of video service to a borrower. There is a replacement fee for any lost or damaged DVD.
