Direct access is available inside schools, public libraries, and academic buildings.

To access at-home, off-campus, and other remote locations:

- 1) Click on the desired e-resource
- 2) You will either access the e-resource, OR
- 3) Be asked "Allow this application to use your location?" CHOOSE
- 4) "Deny" and you will be sent to the Share-it login screen OR CHOOSE
- 5) "Allow" and you will either have access, OR
- 6) Be sent to the Share-it login screen to enter your library, barcode and password (either SDSL-issued card or local library card, ask local librarian for details)
 - If you log in through links on your library's web page, follow the directions and use your barcode and password, if necessary.

Search Tips

- Go to libguides.library.sd.gov to learn more about the resource, including access information, webinars & tutorials.
- Most e-resources have "help" or "search tips" links near the top.
- Depending on need & skill level, students can select resources in various school categories.
- Translation tools are within EBSCO resources, Gale Virtual Reference Library, SIRS, ProQuest, World Book and other e-resources.
- Articles have "cite" links leading to a variety of citation styles.
