

Mango Languages

Mango Languages

Teaches more than 70 languages. Create an account to track progress or be able to learn on the go with an internet-capable device. Choose from all languages or select from these sections:

Learn English

Begins with users' native language and teaches English. Includes almost 20 languages.

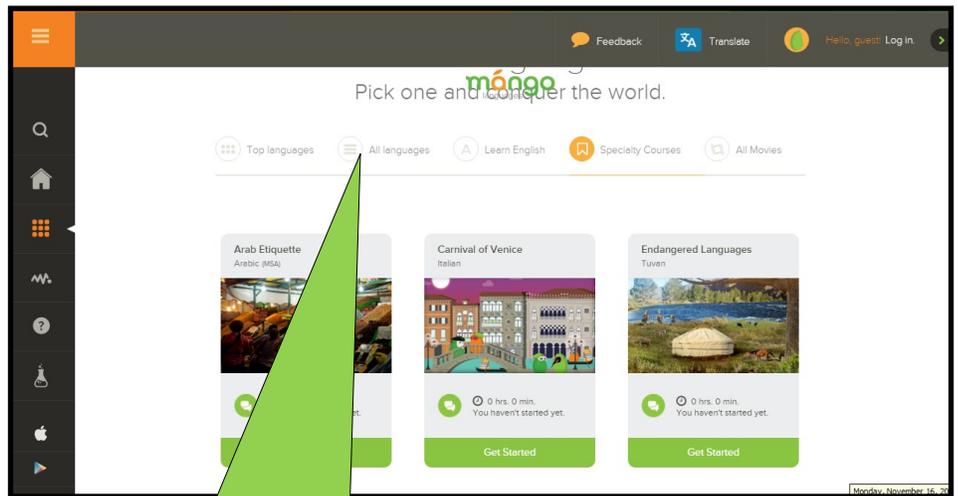

Specialty Courses

Short courses with a specific focus for professional or recreational use, such as Medical Spanish and St. Patrick's Day

Mango Labs

Allows users to try language courses that are under development

- Mango Languages offers courses in more than 70 languages to allow users to learn, listen and speak their chosen language. Courses for English learners begin in the student's native language and teach English. Courses focus on vocabulary, grammar, pronunciation and culture.

Choose from courses in all languages, courses for English language learners or short, specialty courses. Clicking icons on the left sidebar allows access to Mango Labs and apps for e-devices.

If you have any questions about using this database, contact a South Dakota Librarian.

Provided by the South Dakota State Library and

To Access Mango Languages

- Go to SD State Library website (<http://library.sd.gov>)
- Click Online Resources: A to Z Complete Listing
- Click Mango Languages
- At home: Enter your Library Barcode and Password

Preferred Language
Choose the language in which Mango Connect is displayed.

English

Log in

Forgot your Password? | Need help?

Log In

Don't have a profile? Create one to keep track of your progress.

Enter as Guest or create an account to track progress or use Mango app on mobile devices

Guest Access

Create a profile to track your progress.

Courses contain Cultural notes in the context of the lessons

The language introduction page includes a section about culture

Dzongkha

mango languages

Chapter 1 • Lesson 1

Cultural note

When you wish someone ལྷ་གཞུགས་བཟང་པོ་, you are wishing them good health.

Culture
650 thousand speakers in Bhutan

mango
languages

Göran Höglund

Learn Dzongkha and unlock the wonders of the Kingdom in the clouds. The national language of Bhutan, Dzongkha literally means “the language of the fortresses.” Steeped in Buddhist tradition, towering monasteries dot Bhutan’s landscape in this remote corner of the Himalaya. Trek to the sacred Tiger’s Nest (Paro Taktsang)