

South Dakota 125th Birthday

DOE will put together a webpage to highlight several things for the 125th. The State Library is coordinating the project.

- DOE and SDSL have incorporated the 125th Logo onto their respective homepages. Visit the 125th website at <http://www.125.sd.gov/>
- 125th Webpage will include:
 - SDSL will digitize historical SD Dept of Public Instruction/Dept of Education reports to highlight educational happenings in SD. Part of this will be digitizing the Indian ethnic heritage studies curriculum development project documents from 1974-75. The website will also include the more recent Oceti Sakowin standards developed by DOE as well as the WoLakota Project <http://www.wolakotaproject.org/>
 - SDSL staff will research and add to an already compiled list of SD authors on the SDSL Pinterest site <http://pinterest.com/librarysd/south-dakota-authors/>
 - Department staff will update and revise the “South Dakota Centennial Resource Handbook of Centennial Projects and Activities for the Elementary and Secondary Level.” Included will be 125 classroom activities and projects that teachers can use. The document created will be sent to all public and private schools.
